I gave it as a gift for my doctor who was moving to Alaska - hope he found it helpful and didn't get upset over the title!

After spending the 2014 summer in Alaska, this was my favorite reference while traveling in my motorhome. Compared to several others, it was factual, to the point, easy reading, well organized, and humorous. At a couple of locations I went against advice (such as skipping Glacier Bay NP) and regretted my decision. This book is a keeper.

Just a few tips for me- didn't quite mesh with my cruise/trip. Good map and suggestions for Anchorage. Would be good if you were planning your own trip

Love this book , fast delivery , very happy customer !

This was an excellent read and really helped me plan my trip to Alaska.

Reads as though it was written by a friend rather than a scholar - fun to read and helpful. The author has a way of keeping everything positive, even when referencing a less-than-favorite place.
