Customer Reviews

I was less than thrilled with this book of perforated hall-of-famer cards. The quality of color printing does not approximate the modern collector's card and the information on their backs is standardized, without an attempt at a "vintage" look. Useful, perhaps, in learning about Cooperstown's elect, especially those from generations past, but in no sense a bridge to modern collecting.

Thank You. No problems.

Nice book

Not a baseball price guide but some of these cards are worth money

This item was not what I expected, but I was still greatly pleased. My initial disappointment was reversed. Thank you.

I bought this as a Birthday gift for my adult son. He loves Baseball and said this set is just a great gift.

All cards are a little hard to cut but got some stars like Mantle, Cobb ,and Young. These cards go well with my collection. Thank you!

I was expecting much more for the price. I gave it to my 8 year old nephew.
