Text: English (translation) Original Language: Hebrew

S. L. MacGregor Mathers (1854-1918) was a prominent scholar and leader of the occult movement in Britain at the turn of the century. A life-long fascination with mysticism and Celtic symbolism led Mathers to hold high office in the Rosicrucian Society of England, and eventually to become a founder of the Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn. He is also well known for having been a key tutor to Aleister Crowley.

A very limited scope with some very difficult references in the foreword. This is not a terminal book in one bit and is actually quite scant on its breadth on the subject matter. Considering the amount you're paying for this book, you can get the exact same information off the internet. However, if having a paper copy in your hands is helpful (as I've found it to be) then this is certainly a good purchase in that respect.

Great read.

If you are looking at this, you(should)already know what it is. I cannot make comment on this tome.

Love is the Law, Love under Will.93

Insightful, but not to be played with

Pros: Good ArtFunny instructionsAelistor Crowley is a hootCons:I dont think this is the source material of the etchingsSomewhat innacurate translationBetter versions of same material exist

Exactly what I wanted. Very pleased with this purchase.

classic,

Very informative and well illustrated.
