Customer Reviews

I read varied genres in books, many of them Westerns. This one is a simple story of a semi-retired widowed lawman who becomes involved with rescuing a damsel in trouble. Her plight will take them through many trials, that brings them heartache and broken dreams they both experience, but love will prevail. The story has a lot of action, keeping me interested most of the time. The authors writing is simple yet descriptive, and although a predictable ending, I did enjoy it.

Good family reading. I enjoyed the story even though it has been used in similar ways before.

Widower saves girl and they fall in love.

A good story to read and I enjoyed it. It was nice to have a great happy ending making the reader feel good.

The author was a bit getting it together, but in the end it was a good read for a western lover.

C.J. Petit always has a hero, suspense, and romance. Always a good western story.

I enjoy Petit's writing. He has an enjoyable style which honors Old West style. The Debt is another very enjoyable book that makes for a pleasant read and makes you glad you found it!

Very nice easy to read feel good story.

The plot was way too easy to guess. Maybe just your average western
