This book is filled with interesting tid-bits about Algarve a sunny beach paradise in the region of Portugal. The book goes into detail about some of the attractions of Algarve and what makes it interesting. The beautiful locale is only the beginning of what makes it an intriguing place to visit. It is filled with a rich history and many traditions that make it a paradise you never want to leave. At the end of the book it gives a list of top 5-10 different places to visit, such as bars, churches, parks, beaches, and many more. If you are thinking about visiting the area pick up this book. On our next family trip, we plan to visit Portugal and my friends whoÃfÂçÃ â ÑÃ â,,çve visited the place have always recommended to drop by Algarve. Good thing I got this very informative and detailed book. IÃfÂçÃ â ÑÃ â,,çd certainly recommend this to travellers or families travelling like us because the book gave away infos that aren't usually found in other travel guide. I always want my family to enjoy each trip and that includes being able to visit unique spots, enjoy the food, and experience the culture of the place we're visiting. This book has certainly helped us in planning!

I have already been in Algarve in Portugal as I come from Spain and it is not very far away from I come from. As I wanted to go again I decided to look for more information and downloaded this book. This book contains a lot of information and even though I was there before I have learned so much with this book that will make my visit to the city much more pleasurable. This is a short book but the tips help you see the city as if someone from there had already given you advice. If you are planing a visit to Algarve, you may want to check this book out.

This was perfect for my upcoming trip! I will have my kindle with me to use the book while i'm in Portugal as well. The author have included links to google maps for every destination which comes very good in hand and I love that about the book! The book is well written, well structured and very nice formatted. Everything is in it's place (which far from all kindle books are). I couldn't ask more from a travel guide to be honest, no matter if you are going to Portugal with family, friends or on business, this guide have everything for everyone..

This could have been called Algarve laid bare. Antonio tells every place you need to know about in this great city. Anyone who is planning a vacation needs to read this book. This is good for those are looking for great nightlife or a family friendly atmosphere. It is laid out in a very understandable and interesting way. Maps are included as well as great pictures.
