Customer Reviews

I enjoyed book 1 of this series (liked the hero, but the heroine was a bit too brash for me), so I skipped book 2 as that seemed to be cut from the same cloth, but this heroine in book 3 was just what I wanted to read. Kira's the shy, quiet type who thinks she's boring. She's also a virgin. She's not brash or ballsy, but neither is she a timid mouse. There's more to her, some pain, some insecurity, and a whole bunch of longing. I really felt for her and her reasons for pushing the hero away. She tries so hard to resist him, but he is such a charmer. I loved this hero. One of the sweetest I've read, alien hero or otherwise. I always love the heroes who look not so human, and Aehako is about seven feet tall, light blue in color, with horns and a tail. His people on this ice planet are hunter-gatherers, and he looks barbarian with his loin cloth and all the muscles, but he's charming, flirty, and kind. He's so gentle with Kira, one of the humans stranded on his planet. He calls her Sad Eyes, because he can see the pain and loneliness in her. She's the one for him, no one else, human or his own kind, will do, only Kira, and he persists until he has her convinced that she is all he needs. It was really sweet. His courting gift to her was too funny! The sex is erotic with good juicy details, the romance is sweet and caring, and all of it was fun to read. It's fun to see these humans fitting into this alien tribe. Hope to see more of that, and of the children, too! I hope the author is sure to include that in future books. I also like the dual first-person POV. This 3rd book was light, sweet, fun sexiness with an h/H who deserve each other and are going to be together no matter what. It's a sweet, happy romance.

Barbarian Lover is book three in the Ice Planet Barbarians series by Ruby Dixon. This one features Kira and Aehako. Their story is different in that they have not 'resonance', but they feel attracted to each other. It could be a disaster or it could work out. What the resonance means is their cooties don't match or haven't chosen each other to be mates, but Aehako wants Kira as his mate. Kira is always sad, sad eyes as Aehako calls her. She worries a lot, is lonely, and has a secret. One that she feels will get her kicked out of the tribe and this secret is why she has not resonated. I felt so much for Kira. She really got to me. Things aren't easy for her, especially with this translator that the abductors put in her ear. Aehako always has a smile and a funny thing to say. He watches Kira and acts the fool just to see her smile. It was sweet how he tried to get her to open up and how he is protective towards her even though they haven't resonated yet. Wow very emotional. This story is a little sad and heartbreaking at times. Those humans that haven't resonated feel rejected and are doing things to find their place or fit in. They are worried. As for Aehako and Kira, I loved how the romance bloomed and the sexual desires they have for each other. The ending surprised me. I got sad for a moment, but then it turned out happy. I keep getting surprised and sucked into the lives of these women and alien men. Barbarian Lover was a sweet emotional journey. I loved this couple and the changes that are taking place. I am hooked and of course have went out and bought the next book. Rated: 4.5 Stars

This one was my favorite in the series and hope to read more of this couple in other stories. Hero believed in their love and fought for their love until the end. Heroine fought it because of her insecurities, low self esteem and past relationship disappointments. She doesn't want to just have sex to have sex, so doesn't see point in doing anything if it will break her heart to give him up if he resonates (alien code for mating call) with someone else. He doesn't give up and finally wins her over!! loved the hero. Before she met her he was popular horn dog but hey it was before he met her and he is loyal and protective since meeting her. He is described as a hawt, popular male. He is also charming and goofball. Imagine he is the life of the party. I love how offended and hurt he gets when heroine's continues refuse him at first but loved that he did not give up on them. He was tenacious and so in love. Heroine is more reserved and old fashion type of gal. She worries alot..lol Anyway I digress. The hero helps heroine out of a predicament and gives the heroine confidence to kick some alien kidnappers butts! B@d@ss! The story continues as they start new colony and the ending was awesome! That old girlfriend had to go, this hero was taken. Don't you just hate those thirsty, desperate, skanks. Yeah hero was that good;) Uh, the skank was bad but loved hero's consistent way of dealing with her. The heroine stepped it up and put that skank in her place. You go girl! Those quiet girls are the ones to watch I tell you :) Loved it! Also, hero was funny and that third nipple description was riot! Loved how he did not know about kissing but described it like going down on a female. These aliens were such horn dogs I tell you. Found inner dialogue hilarious at times. 5 stars loved it!!!

A funny, sexy alien is determined to win over an "I can't be what you need" virgin... Lots of laughs with plenty of misunderstandings, miscommunications and even a mystery thrown in for good measure. I'm not one for playing with toys (why play with a toy when you can play with the real thing!) but that didn't stop me from enjoying this latest addition to the Ice Planet Barbarian story overall. I'm looking forward to Harlow's story, and would love to see a HEA for Haeden too.
