Czeching In: Adventures Beyond Prague

Synopsis

An American immigrant reconnects with her native land, the Czech Republic. This equal-parts travelogue, history, and memoir could only be written by a curious native with a wicked sense of humor. After living in California for over three decades, Lenka, with her husband Larry (a Midwesterner with just the right amount of quirkiness), zigzag the Czech country roads, visiting towns with unpronounceable names like Mstislavice or Hvizdalka. As they search for the answer to why Lenka's father stood taller when he said, "I'm Czechoslovakian", Lenka exposes sometimes heart-wrenching, sometimes triumphant, often grotesquely absurd bits and pieces of her country's past, providing deeper insight into the complex history and culture of her beer-loving, rule-defying countrymen who have learned to survive squeezed between superpowers - Russia and Germany - and emerged better for it. Czeching In is for anyone planning a trip to the Czech Republic, has been there, has Czech ancestors or wants to learn in an entertaining way about this dazzling country located in the heart of Europe.

Customer Reviews

"(a Midwesterner with just the right amount of quirkiness)..."This indeed sooo true!Can't wait to start reading it!!I'll update my post later...

This is a simply wonderful book. Whether you're a potential visitor to the Czech Republic who wants to see more than colorful Prague, or you just hope to learn more about the history, people and culture of this intriguing country, it's a must-read. I recommend it highly.
