Donna Marie Lively is a lifelong fan of the Mackinac area. She and her husband, Craig, own businesses in both the Upper Peninsula and northern Lower Peninsula of Michigan. Donna is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University where she specialized in children's literature, science and pedagogy.

I bought this very handy visitors book for knowledge for my upcoming vacation. This guide is broken down in sections which makes for easy find for what you want, information on Mackinaw City as well as the island. I checked on lodging first. I couldn't believe all lodging was listed in alphabetical order, name, address, price and paragraph about ammentaties. The rest of the book is broke down just as thorough. You will be very well pleased to spend this small investment for a great visitor book. is always my source I visit.

Awesome, my sister and I took our 83 year old mother to Mackinac Island. We wanted to make sure she saw and enjoyed herself. This book helped us plan an unbelievable visit for her. Memories for a life time. Highly recommend purchasing this book.

A very useful book. I am a tour guide and it really is easy to read and digest. Have told other guides to get it Perfect for everyone. If you've been to the island hundreds of times or if this is your first time, you will learn so many new things.

We enjoyed reading it before going there. Made the trip much more enjoyable. Would recommend to read to anyone going there.

Bought this for a planned trip to Michigan, to better select what we'll have time to do there. The section on Mackinac Island and the Grand Hotel is especially helpful, and has pictures. Very good detailed descriptions of day trips and various attractions, and this guide is exactly what I was hoping to find.

We can't wait to visit Mackinac Island and this book gave us a great preview of what we can expect.

Great book. Planning a vacation.
