Nadeen Ward is a pattern designer and an instructor at The Wild Rose Quilt Shop in Orting, Washington, who has taught sewing since 1980. She lives in Pacific, Washington.

I rarely get excited about pattern books, but in this case the attention to scale when selecting fabric for her clothing and the technique she uses in her sewing met all expectations. This book is a great jumping off point for your creativity. I bought it for the footed sleeper pattern and it's full of other patterns I'm going to try. Most other books show photos with crooked seams and mismatched plaids and prints and the author (or whomever did her test sewing) paid attention to the details. 100% satisfied and I'll be looking for more from this author.

Really cute patterns. The pattern are set up to cut out as they are printed on one side. They are also in the book to trace. That is a nice feature in case you lose a piece or it is ruined. Granddaughter wants swim suit with terry robe coverup first. Grandma likes the footed pajamas and the night gowns. Something for everyone.

My 6 yr old granddaughter helped to cut out some of these and they were quick to make up. I recommend this for easy beginners..

sizes were perfect for the dolls and the footie jams were the best. Perfect to a t. Customers loved them!!

i love this book. It has easy directions. i enjoy make a variety of PJ's for the 18" doll. Delivery is really quick!

Have almost wore this book out already...love the patterns and easy instructions

Easy, clear directions.

The patterns were awesome....I have made 12 outfits for grand daughter's doll.
