Synopsis

When advertising executive, Jane Walker, finds herself widowed and expecting her first child, she sinks into a severe depression. Her boss and co-workers surprise her with a vacation, forcing her from the safety of her office. She's too embarrassed to tell anyone her late husband was leaving her for another woman when he was killed in the accident. When Jane arrives at the vacation destination, she's most upset to find that the B&B is run by an Amish family. Jane meets the family's son, Zac, a widower with a young child, and takes an immediate dislike to him. Why does Jane have a grudge against the Amish? ## Customer Reviews

Gave five stars--cannot say enough about these wonderful stories of love & romance---the clean Amish lifestyle is extremely interesting to me---highly recommend the series to everyone!!! Looking forward to more of this series!!!

Awesome story. You won't be sorry you read it. I never tire reading about the Amish. Their lives aren't always perfect as one would think. They go through trials and tribulations as anyone else. Some of the story's are true and some not but still enjoyable but I only read the one that are at least 175 pages and prefer the longer ones. Enjoy! GAB

I love all the Amish Stories and read as many as I can.

A simple story suitable for Jr. High girls. The theme is that God works everything out for us and His glory! Trust Him!

What a well written story. I enjoyed reading this book.
