Customer Reviews

"... an engrossing account of the chronicling of a major part of Canada's history. Anyone interested in western or northern Canadian history or the history of business will find it an informative and entertaining read." The International History Review "This densely and carefully documented work with much contextual information is an unprecedented history of the HBCA and an important reference work on a body of archival material of the highest importance to Canadian history." Laura Peers, University of Oxford

Deidre Simmons, a research and archives consultant for twenty-five years, holds a Master's degree in history (archival studies) from the University of Manitoba. She is the author of Servite in Caritate: The First One Hundred Years of St. Margaret's School

This is mostly statistics, facts and not about people which was my interest. Well compiled and complete accounting of the Hudson Bay Operations of old.
