A Pansexual Adventure Through Time: A Transition Autobiography

Synopsis

“A beautiful, poignant, and oftentimes hilarious collection of trans coming-of-age poems.” — Julia Serano, author of Whipping Girl

A Pansexual Adventure Through Time is a collection of comics, illustrations, and poetry that doubles as an autobiographical account of gender transition, lust, nostalgia, pubescent whimsy and the American dream. An unlikely and necessary antidote to trans narratives that focus on triumphant peaks and tragic ends, Birdsong's quirky and accessible style will remind readers of all stripes of those tender, random times of life between what was, and what is to come.

In 2003, Griffin Rae Birdsong started writing about sasquatches and draculas. She began studying English at Idaho State University in 2008, and was featured in Black Rock & Sage journal. A few years after dropping out, she became one of the creators of The Sentimentalist Zine, chronicling her trans-feminist whimsy and promoting local writers in her home town of Idaho Falls. Upon moving to Boise in 2014, she became one of the coordinators for the Death Rattle Writers Festival. Her first book, A Pansexual Journey Through Time, was published through H. O. Tanager Press in 2016. She currently lives in Boise where she still occasionally writes love poems about draculas.

Smartly written, "A Pansexual Adventure Through Time", is an incredibly humorous and thought provoking introspection on transition. I would recommend it to anyone who likes stories, reading, laughing and/or crying.

I enjoyed this book very much. It was funny, sad, and made me feel less alone in my own transition. Thank you, Griffin.

Excellent poetry and illustrations. Pansexual Adventure is raw, real and relevant. Great read.

Most amazing book i have read in YEARS highly recommended!

Enlightening, artfully written peek into a world I am just coming to know.

Raw, honest, beautiful. Sweet and dark and delicious.

I got this book free, for giving an honest review. To start off the artwork on the cover, and in the book are simply beautiful. The book wasn't written like I'm used to, which gave me a bit of a struggle to focus on at the start. As I got used to it, I stopped losing focus. This book was truly a great read, and I do recommend it to anyone who enjoys reading. Even if this isn't your type of book, you should give it a try.

such a wonderful book. Griffin is a fantastic writer and her poetry ranges from funny to devastating to poignant as all hell. go read it ok
