I Spy With My Little Eye Hockey

Synopsis

For many sports fans there's no such thing as too much hockey. And in I Spy with My Little Eye Hockey, young readers get double the fun. Matt Napier, author of Z is for Zamboni: A Hockey Alphabet, teams up with photographer David Milne to create a visual puzzle book that challenges the deductive skills and sharp eyes of young readers. Dual look-alike photographs are filled with hockey masks, sticks, pucks, even miniature ice rinks and trading cards. But one of the scenes has been slightly altered. Can you see the changes? How many can you find? Poetic clues help young fans and seasoned veterans find the various differences between each pair of scenes. From the number of Zambonis on the ice to the sweaters hung in a locker room, hockey fans of all ages will enjoy this new way of spying the game!

Matt Napier is the author of the bestselling Z is for Zamboni: A Hockey Alphabet and Hat Tricks Count: A Hockey Number Book. The son of a professional hockey player, Matt was born in Montreal, Quebec. He is a recent law school graduate and lives in Toronto. David Milne is a third-generation photographer in Toronto, Canada. He studied at Brooks Institute of Photography in Santa Barbara, California. David photographs art for numerous galleries and artists, corporate portraits, products and all types of events. Travel photography is his passion.

Not what I expected. My five year old loves I Spy books, but in this one you don't find objects you find what's different between the two pages and the pages are very busy. Sorry I purchased it.

Fun

Cute coaches gift.....I had the kids write a little note to the coach on the inside cover and then I added pics from the season.

Beautiful book loaded with photos for hockey fans to seek a long list of hockey equipment or to find the differences between two photos.

I like it's just not an "I SPY" book like I thought I wish I would have read more on it, it's a find the differences book so not what I thought I was getting. Still it's a book about hockey and that's just fine in our home!

I bought this for my son. He plays and loves hockey, and he loves I Spy books, so when he got this he was pretty excited. It is different than the I Spy books we are used to. Instead of finding objects, you are finding the differences between the 2 pages. It's different but we like it.

This is a wonderful book for a child. This was a present for my six year old son. It is a good way to spend time with him. He likes trying to find the items faster than me.

It is less of a I spy with my little eye and more of a spot the difference. Fun book but defiantly for ages 3+
