The company's mission - to produce high quality entertainment for Christian families - is fulfilled in the launch of BOZ. Mark Bernthal is author of nearly forty children's books. He's also an Emmy-nominated writer of over fifty screenplays for children's television and home videos. Mark cowrote the play Christmas Special Delivery, performed by churches nationally. He teaches Sunday school to four-year-olds in Plano, Texas, where he resides.

Great book my grandson loves this book.

Boz, the bear, will help your young child understand that God created us all differently. We have different colored eyes and everyone has a different nose etc. "Just know that God, who made you, loves you nose to toes!" Colorful and lively illustrations accompany the rhyming text.

My toddlers absolutely adore the Boz dvds. When I found this book I was super excited to give it a try with the kids. They loved it. I have a 2 and a 3 year old and they request their Boz books on a regular basis. They are short and fun with a sort of rhyming, sing song text.

My 2 yr old LOVES Boz! The books are great. Make sure you check out the DVDs. They are superb for providing entertainment in a calm style while instilling great values and teaching the basics (colors, shapes, numbers) at the same time.

My kids just love this whole series and really love this book. It teaches them the different body parts and lets them know that we are all different. Book also ends with a prayer as does every book or DVD episode.

Our 2-year-old son loves this book! He loves the colors & shapes DVD too. He always specifically asks for "Boz." :)
