Customer Reviews

I'm so impressed with the patterns included in the book. Each one is designed to teach a specific lesson and builds on the lesson from the previous one....Not sure how to hook points, curves, or lettering? Curious how to transfer a design to the foundation cloth? Want to try your hand at creative hooking techniques and proddy? Need to know how to finish your rug after the hooking is done? Kris' photos and descriptions lead you through the entire process. --(Karen Larsen

Love this book! Lots of great projects. What I love most is never having done this kind of rug hooking, this book seems to be very comprehensive for the beginner. Highly recommend for anyone wanting to try their hand at it. Not often I find something that well explained for my own personal use.

Kris Miller's book, Introduction to Rug Hooking: A Beginner's Guide, is clearly written. Her selection of words is masterfully executed. Any rug hooker whether a novice or long-time rug hooker can learn many things from this book. The step by step instructions are easy to follow with much detail and explanation. I enjoyed reading this wonderful book and keep going back to it; that is the true mark of a well-written book.

I recently purchased this book and enjoyed it from cover to cover. I hooked my first rug on my own and just went for it. I wish I had read this book before I hooked it. She tells you everything you need to know from start to finish. I now start a rug with a plan instead of scratching my head. Thanks Kris for sharing with us. Please write another soon!

A perfect companion for a beginner or seasoned rug hooker... a very informative and instructive book with photos and text that clearly describes and enhances the creative joy that rug hooking brings. You can't go wrong with this purchase and I feel it is a wonderful resource to have on hand. I have quite a stash of books about rug hooking but I find this one is a standout in every way.

This book was so informative. It taught me everything I needed to know for my very first rug hooking project, from what hook to buy all the way to how to finish a piece. Great pictures. Easy to read cover to cover.
