I'm a lawyer. My friends and family tell me jokes all the time and I wanted some new material. I can take a joke and rarely get offended. Everyone knows a lot of jokes about lawyers are insinuating they aren't honest. I gave the book two stars because I just didn't think these were funny. 99% of them were just calling lawyers liars and cheats. Not offended, the jokes just weren't that good. There's a tons of jokes though, which I guess could be good, but I would have preferred the author be more selective.

Present for my brother who just graduated from law school.

very funny!

Great gift for lawyers!!

A funny book for a new lawyer given as a gift. The book was laid out well because it was broken into small chapters. I can see this book as a resource if you need a good lawyer joke for a speech etc.

This book is cheesier than I would have liked. The humor in it is obvious and dry. It's less, "A lawyer, a priest, and a doctor walk into a bar..." and more subtle. Many of the "jokes" are in story form and do not have bold punchlines. Many times I was left thinking, "Really? That's the joke?" Not a bad buy, just not my kind of humor.

Ok

I bought it to find material for a few lawyer jokes. There were lots of good ones (and a few terrible ones!). But overall, it's a good book that you will find funny or useful for speaking engagements.
