Living Lutheran: Renewing Your Congregation (Lutheran Voices)

Synopsis

Kelly Fryer's book Reclaiming the L Word introduced one congregation's journey through renewal. Now Dave Daubert provides a practical how-to guide that will enable church leaders to help individual congregations walk through the process for themselves. Creative and informative, the book provides a straightforward approach that helps congregations reclaim Lutheran tradition for the 21st century. Includes questions for individual or group reflection and an additional resources section.

Customer Reviews

Dave Daubert is Executive for Renewal of Congregations for the Evangelical Outreach and Congregational Mission unit of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. He lives in Chicago, USA.

This book is very inspiring. It gives you plenty of support and tools to use in a small congregation or small groups.

Encouraged to read by our pastor. Good insight into the Lutheran belief. Easy read and very informative.

Inspiring. A different way to look at church. Have used purpose and guiding principles in the business world and this book provides a roadmap for refocusing our congregation.

I read the book to understand the thinking behind an approach to church building that works from the bottom, grassroots level, to organizational level. Very clear explanation with good outlines for retreats and group work. Excellent process for any group thinking.

Same message I have heard my whole life. Nothing new.

We are using this book in our church council meetings to help us thru the call process. Very good book.

Excellent condition

Like new book at good price. Thank you.
