I love these EZ Play books. I have always wanted to be able to play something on the piano and these books give me the opportunity to play songs with which I am familiar without having to have years of training. The selection is wonderful and I just keep getting smoother every day.

A lot of the songs are transposed to simpler keys and chord progressions. The life of the music is diminished a bit by this fact. Great for beginners, but not a lot of detail.

If you enjoy Sinatra's music you have to love his song book.

There's a big selection of songs, but some of the arrangements are pretty sparse, i.e. one note left hand accompaniments, etc. You'll have to be comfortable with spicing up some of the dull writing.

It has most of his famous songs. There are some typos in some songs, but I guess that's par for the course as music is sometimes supposed to be mysteriously interpreted by the muses in our head.

If you are a Sinatra fan this should be in your music library.

Amazing birthday present for my brother!!!!

THANK YOU FRANK!
