Bob Books, Set 1: Beginning Readers

Synopsis

Teach a child letter sounds with Bob Books Set 1! With four letters in the first story, children can read a whole book. Consistent new sounds are added gradually, until young readers have read books with all letters of the alphabet (except Q). Short vowels and three-letter words in simple sentences make Bob Books Set 1 a fun confidence builder. With little books, come big success. (TM)

Customer Reviews

"Forget Dick and Jane. Your beginning reader needs Bob Books[®] to succeed."

--cpamomva.blogspot.com"Tiny enough to sneak in a very full diaper bag, we are enjoying them here, there, and everywhere." -- needsnewbatteries.blogspot.com"They are a wonderful addition to a home library, school library, or a homeschool library. I love the smiles on my daughters' faces when they have succeeded in reading a book--that's priceless!" -- ourgaggleofgirls.com"Bob Books[®] made our children into avid readers. Best investment I ever made." -- The Lewiston Tribune

You've prepared your child for reading - refrigerator magnets down low and easy to reach; letter sounds taught. Your child can proudly spell his or her name. Perhaps he can identify the "stop" and "open" signs as you drive in your car. He or she is ready for the next step into reading. Inside the colorful box, the bright red cover beckons. On the first page, the letters: M - a - t. Your child says the sounds: mmmmm, aaa, ttt. Then, faster: "Mat." Your youngster has read his first word! "Sam", "sat" and "on" complete the vocabulary, and suddenly your child can say, "I read the whole book!"

That is the magic of Bob Books. After 13 years of teaching 3, 4 and 5-year-olds, watching a child make that giant first step into reading still thrills me. The pride in their eyes, their triumphant grasp of a difficult concept, and opening their world to the excitement of books and reading, has brought me many years of satisfaction. Bob Books were specifically designed to facilitate that ah-ha moment, when letters first turn into words. By slowly introducing new letter sounds, using consistency and repetition, and stories that fit short attention spans, your child will quickly find his or her own ah-ha moment. We wish your young learner much success and happiness as he or she enters the great adventure of reading.

I have taught 4 kids to read using these books. I bought this set for my grandson. They are short and fun and give kids a sense of accomplishment that makes them want to keep learning and read more.

These books are absolutely wonderful. My four-year-old grandson was so excited to move through to each chapter and add a new word as he read for himself and the pages came to life.

This helps me more than my daughter. I had no idea learning to read was such a foreign concept to my daughter and myself! Thank goodness these books are showing my 4 year old and I the way...

My daughter has really been enjoying these books. I love that they start off so simply, which helps build confidence! Even with the stories being very simple, they manage to include fun pictures and ideas - which keep the kiddos coming back for me. I would absolutely recommend these for newly budding readers.

My granddaughter just completed kindergarten and is about to start 1st grade in a few weeks. The Bob Books series is a great bridge between those 2 grades, helping her retain over the summer what she learned in kindergarten and preparing her for the reading challenges of 1st grade.

Actually purchased this accidentally, but my 3 year old loves the box set. We read them frequently and she loves "reading" them and playing with the small books.

The Bob Books series is a wonderful tool to help kindergarteners practice sight words and begin sentence structure. The books are perfect for the suggested age range listed on the package. They are also entertaining for the adults coaching through each sentence and short story. Highly recommend for the beginning reader.

Books arrived on time and we're so excited to get started. I became a BOB Book fan in 1997 with my son. Now I have two Godchildren ages 6 & 4; one again we're on the BOB Book path and ready to go. Thank you
