Every classical singer should own this collection. I bought it for just one song, Oh, quand je dors (Liszt). I am now studying and restudying dozens of delectable chansons. The print is very clear and the quality of the paper is excellent. The songs cover a large area of French music. I am delighted with this anthology.

I go through books when first purchased, listening to the songs and starring ones I'm interested in learning. I starred about half the songs in this book, the most I've done in a book so far. Excellent selection!

Contains so many beautiful french compositions! Lovely art songs with explanations and artist bios. Highly recommended for any classical voice student.

Yes, some of my students need the high edition for contest too!

This seems to have more songs in it than their other anthologies. This has the "hits" of the French repertoire and some transpositions that are hard to find other places.

Absolute great condition. No tears or anything on the outside of the book that I can see. I am happy with this purchase.

Indispensable compilation of french art songs!

Great price, great repertoire for my students, something for the earlier singers and a lot for the more advanced. Great book.
