Official White House China;: 1789 To The Present

Synopsis

Evoking gatherings of royalty, diplomats, politicians and celebrities at the White House, this volume depicts more than 200 years of china and porcelains purchased for presidential entertaining. From George Washington's personal selection of French and Chinese porcelains to the gold-encrusted American china used for more recent state dinners, the book shows trends in taste and culture that reflect both personal and national aspirations. The second edition includes essays by White House curators that provide information on pieces acquired since 1975. --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

Customer Reviews

Great reference for the White House china of presidents better than I expected and informative.

nice book- quick shipping=thanks

INTERESTING BOOK WITH GREAT PHOTOS OF HOW THE PRESIDENTS OF THE UNITED STATES ENTERTAINED- REFLECTING SOMETHING ABOUT THEM IN THE CHOICE OF THE PATTERNS FOR THEIR CHINA.

Didn't have as much history of the china as I was looking for. A better sample of the book's contents would have been helpful.

For anyone interested in this facinating subject...this book is the "bible!" Thank you Betty Monkman for updating this history and for letting "fans of the White House" like me - be able to learn so much! I truly dream of someday having dinner off some of this china!
