If you liked Three Men In A Boat, get this. This is a funny, sweet, account of a fellow's trip to the source of the Thames which was initially undertaken to impress a woman. It sat on my nightstand for awhile as I did not expect it to be that good but I really enjoyed it and can recommend it. He does repeat a bit, for effect, but that can be forgiven.

The follow-up to '500 mile walkies', Mark Wallington does it again. An excellent read full of belly laughs that keeps you reading.. when you should be doing something else probably. Couldn't put it down. Thanks Mark!

Got this in paperback a few years ago and liked it so much I got a hardback copy.
